OBSERVED THE DAY United States and Circuit Courts Adjourned.

THE ANNIVERSARY OF ANNEXATION

Judge Gear Makes a Patriotic Address—District Court Appeals Filed.

Both United States and Circuit courts adjourned yesterday morning because of Annexation Day. Judge Estee issued naturalization papers to two applicants, and then adjourned with the remark that the Federal Court would observe the anniversary of the day the Hawaiian republic became a part of the United States. Judge Gear adjourned court after assigning criminal cases for trial.

FEDERAL COURT.
Naturalization papers were issued by Judge Estee to Thomas S. Sanders, who renounced his allegiance to King Edward of England, and to Herman Walters, a former resident of Germany.

Upon motion of United States Attorney Bald the information in the cases of the four seamen of the C. D. Bryant was withdrawn and a new indictment substituted. The four defendants are Hanson, Forst, Schroeder and Reed, and in the new charge they are alleged to have been guilty of both drunkenness and neglect of duty.

CIRCUIT COURT.
Judge Gear opened court in the old courtroom yesterday morning, the Supreme Court having taken possession of their own quarters. He set the following criminal cases for trial next Monday:

Arson, larceny: W. H. Thone, assault with weapon; Misumi, vagrancy; Matsuo, procuring; Manuel Souza, selling liquor without license; Ah Fong, assault and battery; Kawamoto, selling adulterated food; Ah Soon, obstructing justice; Antone Richard Jr., selling adulterated food.

ADJOURNS ANNEXATION DAY.
The court then called in the grand jury and adjourned court because of Annexation Day, an anniversary which he thought should be observed by every citizen of Hawaii. In dismissing the grand and trial juries from further duties yesterday, the court said:

"Gentlemen of the Grand Jury—The court had occasion a few moments ago to refer to the fact that today is the anniversary of Flag Raising Day, the day known as Territorial Day, or Flag Raising Day. Two years ago on the anniversary of this day all government offices were closed. It meant that deemed it fitting and proper, under the circumstances, to keep up that custom, which was not kept up last year, the day falling on Sunday. I have not observed any order from the government offices to this effect, but this court, as it has remarked, deems it fitting and proper, this being the anniversary of the day on which we were admitted to the United States, that we should adjourn."

"On that day all Hawaiian born were changed from Hawaiians to Americans and given the full rights of American citizens, of claiming America as their land, and of having the right to be called Americans. While they have not lost their aloha for their old flag, it is hoped they have acquired a love for the American flag, which means more to them than was thought. It meant that every one of us, from the lowest to the highest, whether Chinese, Japanese or of what nationality, were entitled to all the benefits derived from being citizens of the United States. It was a great and glorious thing for every one here."

This court has had the pleasure of deciding in cases brought before it that was the right of every person here on the 12th day of August. The day should be celebrated, and there is no reason why it should not be celebrated every year, and the court wishes to keep in the minds and hearts of all that it is the flag of all of us, that it is our flag, to be revered and loved. As the court stated to the other jurors, if any of the grand jurors have leisure time today in their hands it would be fitting for them to read the Constitution of the United States and find out the privileges that we are entitled to under it, and that no man's liberty can be taken without due process of law, and that every defendant is entitled to a jury trial, and that we are all entitled to all of the benefits which any American receives under the constitution. So, gentlemen of the grand jury, I deem it proper to excuse you for the day and until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, your usual hour of convening, and the court takes great pleasure in doing so. I trust it will cause all of you to think more of the American flag and of American institutions."

Gentlemen of the jury—Three years ago today the American flag was raised over these islands, and what was known as Territorial or flag raising day was inaugurated. The following year the day was observed by the government, all government offices being closed. Last year the day fell on Sunday and no notice was taken of it. The court believes it was a good idea. Some one has marked on my calendar 'Flag Raising Day'. The court feels that it is a day that should be generally observed.

"People are all too prone to forget that the American flag waves here, and that when it went up we were entitled to all the liberties and the benefits accorded American citizens. It made those who were Hawaiians Americans, and conferred upon them the right of American citizens. This court deems it proper and fitting that this court should adjourn today, it being the anniversary of the flag raising. All minor matters having been disposed of that will be done."

"In one way the court is sorry that it will not be able to proceed with the Love case and the Sister Albertina case, both of which cases are in progress and witnesses present, but, as the court remarks, it deems it proper and fitting to adjourn today."

"Three years ago for the first time, and for all time to come let us hope, America's national emblem arose over these islands. If any of the jurors have a few hours to spare today the court would suggest that no better way to spend them could be found than by studying the constitution of the United States, which is something we should all know, and which at that time, if not before, abrogated and annulled all laws inconsistent with the constitution of the United States."

"The court takes great pleasure in being able to adjourn this court at this time because of its being the anniversary of Flag Raising Day. The court had the pleasure of being present at that time, and saw many tears as well as much rejoicing. The court does not know why there should not be the same rejoicing today. Perhaps the American flag coming here has injured the court for complainants, and recovered for them the land in question and $900 additional, and paid all costs of the proceedings. That it was agreed to give him $500 as attorney's fee, and allowed him a five years' lease of the land in question in lieu thereof. This lease was recorded and defendant knew of no other lease. The case comes from the Fifth Circuit."

RECEIVED LEASE AS ATTORNEY'S FEES.
An answer was filed in the case of Honolulu Co. vs. John D. Wieland to cancel lease. Defendant avers that he was attorney for complainants, and recovered for them the land in question and $900 additional, and paid all costs of the proceedings. That it was agreed to give him $500 as attorney's fee, and allowed him a five years' lease of the land in question in lieu thereof. This lease was recorded and defendant knew of no other lease. The case comes from the Fifth Circuit."

APPEAL FILED.
Notices of appeal from the District Court have been filed in the cases of Wong Pai, assault and battery; A. Peyser, gross cheat; Emil Tschumi, assault and battery; Thomas Metcalf, assault and battery; Wada, assault and battery; Sing Chock, assault and battery; L. K. Otis, violating section 376; Antonio Dante and Olivia Kane, keeping a disorderly house.
